FOR PIANO

For First, Second and Third Grades

BILBRO, MATHILDA. Cherokee Rose. Grade 3 net .35
Melodious and catchy. Teachers can use it for tune and rhythm, dexterity and general teaching purposes.

——The Candy Suite. Grade 1-2 net 1.25
A collection of tuneful, humorous and forceful pieces. Sure to strike joy to the hearts of all young pupils.

BROWN, MARY H. The Swans net .40
A pretty piece in the lower intermediate grade. Good study for thirds, melody playing and development of the left hand.

COERNE, LOUIS A. A Summer Evening. Grade 3 net .35
An all melodic piece on the tone-poem order. Teachers expression, phrasing and use of pedal.

DUTTON, THEODORA. Dance of the Autumn Leaves net .50
——The Music Lesson net .60
——Scandinavian Dance net .60
——Spinning Song net .50
These are study-pieces of marked originality for the lower intermediate grades. They should be welcomed by all teachers.

GRISELLE, THOMAS. Bourree net .60
——Minuet net .60
Both of these pieces are quite fascinating and devoid of dryness. They are of the intermediate grades, and instructive for time, rhythm and important phrases of real pianism.

GRUNN, HOMER. The Whirligig net .40
——Revery net .50
Both in third grade. The first promotes technic; while the other is for developing melody-playing, use of pedal and expression.

LOTH, LESLIE. In Merry May net .40
——On the River net .35
These pieces should be cordially received by teachers. They are dainty and melodious throughout. Both of the easier intermediate grade.

PALDI, MARI. Slumber Song net .40
May be suggested to teachers wishing piece for easy pedal study; also useful for hand expansion among young pupils.

PFEIFFER, AGATHA. Short Stories for Piano. First Grade net .75
A book of refined short pieces with descriptive titles for elementary work. Arranged in progressive order. Sure to please the teacher and pupil.

SPEAR, JANE M. Valse de Ballet. Third Grade net .40
A sparkling dance of great charm and delicacy. A good study for dexterity, rhythm and style and also a delightful salon and concert piece.

TERRY, FRANCES
——The Cradle in the Garret net .40
——In the Robbers' Cave net .40
——Swinging and Singing net .35
These interesting teaching pieces for the second grade are by a composer whose productions are never commonplace. They contain much attractiveness and educational value. Teachers of all standards can utilize them.

WRIGHT, N. LOUISE. Four Miniature Études net .40
This group is for the first and second grade. The study points treated are important, and are sure to be helpful in the fullest sense of the word. Highly recommended to teachers.
